RADO PRESENTS THE 2018 COLLECTION

As a major player on the international design scene and as the Master of Materials, Rado is leading the way in design and materials innovation for watches. Rado presents its latest collection at authorized retailers now. One of the 2018 highlights is the True Thinline in pioneering plasma high-tech ceramic. Light, scratch-resistant, and hypoallergenic, it's the ideal material for the True Thinline, which showcases Rado's groundbreaking monobloc case. The replica diamond powder structure dial complements the warm metallic look of the pioneering plasma for a design piece that lets you shine.
